What this means in practice:

Pathway 1: (Legislature)

- Step 1: Amendment may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives and agreed upon by two-thirds of all the members elected to each House (there are 21 Senators and 41 Representatives, total).
- Step 2: Upon majority agreement, the Secretary of State causes the proposed amendment to be published three months before the next general election (November 3, 2020) in at least three newspapers in each county in which such newspapers shall be published.
- Step 3: If, in the General Assembly next after the said election proposed amendment is agreed upon by two-thirds of all the members elected to each House, it shall become part of the Constitution.

Pathway 2: (Convention)

- Step 1: The General Assembly by a two-thirds of vote of all members elected to each House may submit to the electors at the general election the question whether there should be a convention. If a majority of electors vote in favor, the General Assembly, at its next session, shall provide for the election of delegates.
- Step 2: The delegates chosen shall convene at the Capital of the State on the first Tuesday in September after their election and the elections and procedures shall be created.
